

THE ARTISTS

Heidi Zednik

Heidi has long shared her life between the US and Austria, which not only shaped her linguistically, but also contributed to her openness, cooperative thinking and unusual problem solving ability. She is often part of collective educational projects and cooperative artistic/cultural projects. Currently she is curator for the European Capital of Culture project SCALA Salzkammergut Craft Art Lab. She is a visual artist and lives in the Salzkammergut. She is part of the group studios Ateliers Alte Weberei and is a board member for the associations KAW and Kulturvision Salzkammergut.

www.heidizednik.com

Siegfried Holzbauer

Born 1955 in Bad Ischl, he lives and works as a conceptual artist, photographer & poet in St.Gotthard i.M., Gmunden and Vienna. Numerous publications, performance-like readings, installations. Exhibitions (including Tokyo, Seoul, Las Vegas, London, Paris, Nice, Milan, documenta 13, Vienna). Long-term involvement with photography, focus on instant photography (Polaroid, Fuji), multiple exposures. Member of IG Bildende Kunst, GAV, among others. Currently: DIARIUM Project, STANGLFISCH-Installations.

<https://www.advancedpoetx.com/>

Elza Grimm

was born on 26.10.1985 in Bad Aussee, Styria. After graduating from high school, he completed a bachelor's degree in information design at the FH Joanneum in Graz. From the beginning of 2010 to the end of 2011, he worked as an editing and production assistant on numerous cinema and television documentaries for the Vienna-based Golden Girls Filmproduktion. From 2011 on, he independently produces short feature films, music videos and commercials under the label "Grimmbabies Filmproduktion". His experimental short films, short feature films and music videos have screened at numerous film festivals worldwide. Besides film, music is a second great passion. In 2020, his debut album "Trash Figures" was released. For several years he has increasingly turned to audiovisual art creation. In 2021 he was elected chairman of the professional artists' network Kulturvision Salzkammergut and since then has also acted in this position as a 5% shareholder representative in the Kulturhauptstadt Bad Ischl-Salzkammergut 2024 GmbH.

www.elzagrimm.com

CONTRIBUTING ARTISTS

Natalia Weiss

March 2023, Natalia came to Bad Goisern as one of SCALA's first A.I.R. book / print / paper artists. Through many conversations a friendship and a long-term artistic exchange developed. Heidi's desire to bring a different line language to the Acta Liquida project eventually brought Natalia and her small press back to the Salzkammergut.

October 2023 she held an etching intensive with Heidi at Ateliers Alte Weberei. Natalia will still print some of Heidi's printing plates for which there was not enough time in October. The artistic exchange continues.
natalia-weiss.at

Irmgard Hofer-Wolf

Irmgard came to Bad Goisern as a SCALA textile / leather A.I.R. artist in April 2023. In the course of several studio visits Heidi understood that Irmgard repeatedly uses netting in her work. August 2023 Heidi spent a week with Irmgard in Rum to learn the basic principle of netting. She has created a square. She is still trying to understand the rectangle. The artistic exchange with Irmgard will continue for a long time to come.

Donna E. Price

The artist Donna E. Price was ACTA LIQUIDA's project assistant from the beginning. She knows Heidi's artistic language inside-out and has followed her long-term work with the filter materials. She was also part of the week-long installation process, contributing technically and artistically to key design decisions.

www.donnaeprice.com

Christine Kienesberger / by sahlia

Christine Kienesberger is a graphic designer with a passion for flower photography, which she publishes as by sahlia. She was instrumental in providing a macro perspective of the sediment on the filter materials. This series was not finalized for the exhibition but will continue in the coming years. by sahlia was also Heidi's collaborative partner in the chronology series.

www.bysahlia.com